

Acts 18:1-23

What does it say?

- What is the significance of how and with whom Paul spent his time? For what purpose did he do so?

- What were the effects of the resistance of the Gospel being preached?

- Paul is consistent in his message, what does the text say that emphasizes why this is important?

How does it apply?

- How would you "reason" with religious people today? What about the non-religious?
- How is the Gospel being preached in your community? How is it changing lives?
- To whom is God calling you to spend time with? To share the Gospel to? To encourage?
- What is fueling your next steps? Who is leading your next steps? Who is walking with you?
